Greatest 1 Command, in the Last Days

In the last day, many will come to Jesus and say, “Lord, Lord, did we not praise you, give glory and honor to your name? Did we not build great churches, give 10%, and keep your Sabbath? Weren’t we outwardly religious enough for you?” (Matt. 7: 21- 23) Then Jesus will answer, “Don’t you remember when I was on earth I once said, ‘For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me ...’” (Matt. 25: 31-36) If you did good for someone here on earth, you would have done it for me; in fact, this is the only way to reach me or affect me. I tried very hard to get Peter to love John, Andrew to love James, Bartholomew to love Philip, and Matthew to love Thomas and vice versa, but they kept trying to show love towards me alone. I knew, deep down inside, that it wasn’t true love coming from inside them, but affection tainted with ulterior motives. They wanted something in return for their allegiance, like power, money or glory. (Mark 10: 37) But, the only way they were to truly love me, was to truly love each other, as I had loved them. (St. John 13: 34) In that way, I would have known that I had rubbed off on them. Consequently, when they would have tried to show any affection towards me, I would have believed them. It took a while, but most of them learned eventually. Do you think that I, or the Father in heaven, are concerned with simply our own well being? Remember, the Father and I, are the same yesterday, today, and forever.” (Hew. 13: 8)

Why 1 and Not 2?

In this brief essay, I will attempt to convey my reasoning on how and why I have chosen to write often on Jesus’ greatest one command. I hope this essay will simplify the main theme in the whole of Jesus Christ’s message, and that it will also simplify salvation to the world!

In one of my previous essays, I point out that long ago a Pharisee (a teacher of Moses and the Old Testament) asked Jesus which one of the many commandments in the Old Testament was the greatest. (St. Mark 12: 28- 34) I also noted that this Pharisee did not intend to hear either about a second commandment, nor that it was comparable to his, but Jesus specifically gave him two.

What the teacher of the Law (Old Testament/Jewish Religion) wanted to hear from Jesus, in regards to which is the greatest commandment, was solely: God, who is above all, is to be loved with all of ones' heart, mind, and soul (Deut. 6: 4, 5). The Pharisee believed, as many do today, that through his vertical form of worship (going to church and singing songs that pertain to God, giving money to the church or to the poor through the church) he would love God, and thus fulfill the 1 commandment. However, is this truly the way to love God? Was Jesus satisfied with these ideals?

Also, one must note that in the Jewish religion, three main items: circumcision, laws pertaining to food, and the Sabbath, were what distinguished a Jew from the rest of the world. It has been calculated that an estimated 613 additional rules and regulations were institutions during Jesus' time. If you begin to inspect the Pharisee's ideals closer, you will see that in actuality loving God with all your heart, mind, and soul is really not 1 commandment, but many. I don't think that commandment could ever be one command- singular, but always commandments- plural. As do many today, the Pharisee tried to sum them up into one.

But then again, in the Jewish Old Testament there was this one, truly singular, commandment. This one commandment, love your neighbor as thyself found in (Lev. 19: 18), was added by Jesus to the Pharisee's greatest one commandment: Deut. 6: 4, 5. But, how does one love their neighbor as oneself? What if one does not love themselves? And what kind of love, and to what degree, could people who treat themselves badly offer others? This second commandment, in Jesus' perception, was not complete but would at least bring the Pharisee closer to the God's ideal command. In time, the Pharisee could mature to the degree that Jesus wanted. Although this commandment, to love thy neighbor, was closer to what Jesus intended to teach, it was often neglected and lacking in the people of his generation. When the Pharisee agreed with Jesus' addition, it showed he was moving away from the old. For this, Jesus told the Pharisee he was not far from the Kingdom of Heaven or the ideal command. (Mark 12: 34).

Therefore, Jesus' ideal and mature 1 command is, as stated in the Bible: "A new command I give you. Love each other, as I have, loved you." (St. John 13: 34) As far as this essay is concerned, here are my main reasons for this assertion. First, Jesus could not reveal or preach his ideal command at the beginning of his ministry to the Pharisee or his Disciples until he had fulfilled it through his own example; reconciling the two commandments into one holistic command. It was only after 2- 3 years of historically displaying his ideal treatment of humans, that Jesus could then refer to his history, and cry out on the cross, "It is finished". (St. John 19: 30) Only then, could he say, "As I have". Second, on the last day of an individual's execution, aren't they allowed last rights or last words? Wouldn't those individuals speak of things of great importance? Jesus, knowing that it was his last night alive, never spoke of two separate commandments, but of 1. (St. John 13: 34/15: 12) Third, the Apostles did not write of the 2 commandments as being crucially bonded together, as many believe today. In 1st John 4: 19- 21, John mentions something in regards to loving God, but that is only when one has learned to love humanity, will there be evidence that one loves God! Finally, the Apostles always reminded and alluded to Jesus' new 1 command. (Romans 13: 8) (1 John.2: 7/ 3: 11 & 23/4: 21) (2 John 5, 6) (1 Peter 1: 22) (2 Peter 2: 21/ 3: 2) (1Thess. 4: 9)... Please see on next page Photo 1 of 2 for more verses, and Photo 2 of 2 will be on the last page, 16.

In conclusion, Jesus gave the world an example to follow! (1Peter 2: 21) What the world needs to accept and duplicate is Jesus' denial of Himself and His behavior towards his neighbors, not His presumably churchy behavior! Jesus always sought after the well being of the community (Kingdom of Heaven) and it's Righteousness (love), because he knew that a healthy community would turn around and seek His well being, and in the end product, all will equally receive their daily bread. (Matt 6: 33/ Mark 10: 29 & 30) I'm not trying to glorify Jesus for what he's done, so that people will begin to love Jesus, but I'm trying to get people to love people, as Jesus did. The tax collector in St. Luke 19: 1- 9 is a good example, for he repented and displayed the fruit of the Greatest 1 Command, and he received blessings from Jesus. As a word of encouragement, "people who learn and accept the call to love people, generally, will figure out their responsibility to their community".

Believing in the 2 Commandments from the O.T. does Not Save You

"Not Far" - Not Saved !

St. Mark Chapter 12
The Greatest Commandment
28 One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, "Of all the commandments, which is the most important?"
29 "The most important one," answered Jesus, "is this: 'Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one.' 30 Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' 31 The second is this: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these."
32 "Well said, teacher," the man replied. "You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him. 33 To love him with all your heart, with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."
34 When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And from then on no one dared ask him any more questions.

The religious teacher who asked the question, "Which is the Greatest 1 Commandment in the Old Testament?" was told by Jesus that he was not FAR when he accepted his 2nd additional incomplete commandment. At this point, the scribe had No Salvation! He loved God in an Impersonal Way. (Mark 12:28-34)

"Today Saved"- Was Saved !

St. Luke Chapter 19
Zacchaeus the Tax Collector
19 Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. 2 A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. 3 He wanted to see who Jesus was, but being a short man he could not, because of the crowd. 4 So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see him, since Jesus was coming that way. 5 When Jesus reached the spot, he looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." 6 So he came down at once and welcomed him gladly. 7 All the people saw this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a 'sinner.'"
8 But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount."
9 Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost."

The non-religious tax collector displayed Jesus' new, complete Greatest 1 Command. He was elected and given Salvation! He loved People, and God felt loved. (Luke 19:1-9)(Mt. 25:40)

In addition, the "Year of Jubilee" is the commencement of the Reign of God, and is an event when all bills and deficits are deleted. Jesus began announcing it and the tax collector initiated it, but the religious teacher was concerned with religious arguments and churchy behavior (Lev. 25: 10, 13 & Isaiah 25: 6) (Luke 4:18, 19).

The Anti-Christ, as oppose to Pro-Christ, came ALREADY 1,900 years ago when they turned their backs on the Sacred Command (2 Peter 2: 21)

Making the Transition from Earth, to the Kingdom of Heaven...on Earth

As man develops a more considerate consciousness, so develops his mediums for conveying that conscience, which includes many behavioral forms of expressing it. We see this in our government's intervention through policies when an older system gives way to new innovations. For example, if one were to enter a video store, one would notice that one section may contain the older VHS system, and the other would host the newer DVD system. Although the VHS medium has been a good system, a change has come and a newer system is steadily replacing it. Mankind is always in transition for the better. But also, a transition can be very threatening and uneasy for many, especially for those who rely on the older system. There are two main reasons for Digital Video Disk's slow entrance into public reception. First, in the beginning, it was too expensive for the consumer; and second, many who have been employed through VHS have been maintaining themselves and their families by the product. Both sides must consider these conditions. For the second reason, our government regulates the people so that in time the prices will drop, the old will become obsolete, and those who rely on the old method, can themselves make a transition to the newer, with harmony and equality. Our government should be commended for establishing such a conscientious transition on behalf of the people of the Video Industry. (Note: In addition, this conscientious transition can also be applied to the world making the transition to the electric car from combustion engine cars.)

Likewise, 2000 years ago, mankind was confronted with a transition. Many in Jesus' generation did grasp his vision of the Kingdom of Heaven as being on earth. (Matt. 6: 10) As it is clearly written in the N.I.V., "There were no needy persons among them. For from time to time those who owned lands or houses sold them, brought the money from the sales and put it at the Apostles' feet, and it was distributed to anyone as he had need." (Acts 4: 34, 35) This was in response to Jesus' proclamation of the Eternal Jubilee. (Luke 4: 19) And we also say this is what Jesus meant when he told the young man "If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me." (Matt. 9: 21; also see Leviticus chapter 25 in photo just below)

Jesus Authoritatively Proclaims the Commencement of the "Year of the Lord's Favor", AKA: "The Eternal Unending Jubilee" !!!

Luke Chapter 4	Matthew Chapter 6	Luke Chapter 7
18 "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, 19 to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."<sup>a</sup>	10 your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. 11 Give us today our daily bread. 12 Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.	were blind. 22 So he replied to the messengers, "Go back and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy<sup>b</sup> are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor.
Leviticus	Chapter 25
<sup>8</sup> "Every fiftieth year, <sup>9</sup> on the Day of Atonement,* let the trumpets blow loud and long throughout the land. <sup>10</sup> For the fiftieth year shall be holy, a time to proclaim liberty throughout the land to all enslaved debtors, and a time for the canceling of all public and private debts. It shall be a year when all the family estates sold to others shall be returned to the original owners or their heirs. <sup>11</sup> "What a happy year it will be! In it you shall not sow, nor gather crops nor grapes; <sup>12</sup> for it is a holy Year of Jubilee for you. That year your food shall be the volunteer crops that grow wild in the fields. <sup>13</sup> Yes, during the Year of Jubilee everyone shall return home to his original family possession; if he has sold it, it shall be his again!<sup>14,15,16</sup> Because of this,	harvested!" <sup>23</sup> And remember, the land is mine, so you may not sell it permanently. You are merely my tenants and sharecroppers! <sup>24</sup> "The owner of the land shall not return to him. <sup>28</sup> But if the original owner is not able to redeem it, then it shall belong to the new owner until the Year of Jubilee; but at the Jubilee year it must be returned again. as an ordinary slave, <sup>40</sup> but rather as a hired servant or as a guest, and he shall serve you only until the Year of Jubilee. <sup>41</sup> At that time he can leave with his children, and return to as property. <sup>54</sup> If he has not been redeemed by the time the Year of Jubilee arrives, then he and his children shall be freed at that time.

But unfortunately, that earlier transition never transpired completely. It began as a good race, but took a turn for the worse. (Galatians 5: 7) Similarly, St. Peter, who walked on water, also began confidently, but he too lost faith. (Matt.14: 28- 31) So then, what caused the overall loss of faith in that first generation that witnessed Jesus? Could it have been averted? Also, can that transition be finally completed?

At the forefront, the force that caused the rejection was primarily the infancy of man's consciousness, for that's why Jesus could state, "Father forgive them, for they do not know what they do." (Luke 23: 34) But then again, when that generation claimed to see and understand, Jesus would then tell them that their guilt remains. (St. John 9: 41) Jesus' exhorted, not just the leaders of the religious establishments, but the secular leaders as well. They were the class of people who were most threatened by Jesus and his new ideals. Although their leaderships served their purposes well, their glory was now fading and becoming obsolete. (2 Corinthians 3: 6- 11 & Hebrews 8: 13) Also, these leaders, whether secular or religious, were employed or held some material gain from the system, and both had families who relied on them. So then, you can imagine what they thought of this new guy having no status quo, and sharing knowledge from God with all peoples, as though they were equal to the priests and kings. (St. John 11: 48) (St. John 15: 15) (1 Corinthians 4: 8) What would the religious establishment do, who were Jesus' main opponents, if everyone became a priest, as in the way St. Peter wrote? (1 Peter 2: 5, 9)

Therefore, like the government towards the video industry, Jesus, being conscientious of the leaders and their families, began his ministry stating that he did not come to destroy the Law or Prophets (Old Mediation), but to fulfill them, and not until then, will there be a transition and change. (Matt. 5: 17, 18) In fulfilling that old and impersonal mediation, it was meant that Jesus would disclose a new, personal medium of communicating God's "Will" for all leaderships and fellowships. Can anything be more conscientious and personal than his admonishment, "Love each other, as I have, loved you"? (St. John 13: 34) (St. John 15: 12) Typically, would not the new, in following Jesus' personal example towards the old, bring harmony, equality, and an eventual transition into the new? Also, would not this admonition (1 command) complete the transition that started 2,000 years ago?

Evermore, conscientious commitment is what transforms a divided community into a harmonious community. When the people asked John the Baptist, "what should we do then?" he simply stated, (and we state this in modern terms) "you can begin by lowering the cost of living!" (Luke 3: 10- 14) But many mistrusted and believed that others would not continue in their citizen participation. Everyone sought for his or her own livelihood. Most importantly, many in that first generation misunderstood and pressured those who accepted the new concept into giving up. They misunderstood the long-term ramification for fear of the short-term implications.

In conclusion, very much like in the video industry illustration, the religious and secular establishments are like the old VHS mediation, and Jesus would be like the newer mediation, DVD. Ironically, the VHS medium used a black and dark tape representing being in darkness; while DVD, which uses light as the primary source of mediation, would represent Jesus. Thus fulfilling, that the world is in darkness, and Jesus with his conscientious Greatest 1 Command, is the light! (Matt. 4: 15- 17)

A Concerned Citizen

October 24, 2002

To Our Community,

In view of the present Global Crisis, and especially our nation's crisis, there has never been a time in our nation's history that the combined voice of the people has been needed to the extent that it is needed today. What our nation decides will affect not just our nation, but also the world. And just as one nation can affect the international community, one individual can affect a community; to the point, that it can affect a nation.

Two hundred twenty-five years ago, our nation began under the presupposition that the people would come together in their particular towns and continue their participation. Responsible commitment is what built our nation, and I'm sorry to say, the lack of it is what brought us to our nation's Present Crisis, and quite possibly, our demise. The Town Meeting as it was called is still in existence. The title may have changed, but its principle is still alive.

In Dade County Florida, the Advisory Committee and its principles is a good match for the old Town Meeting. This committee's meetings connect to the government in the way that a human cell connects to the blood system; much like its counterpart did two centuries ago. This is how they work. First, there is the monthly community meeting, which is the cell/Advisory Committee. There, the will of the people is heard. Then, the will is carried to the O.C.E.D. (Office of Community Economic Development) as if through capillaries. Finally, the will reaches the veins and arteries of the governmental branches of the county to their leaders. Their leaders in turn will pump back to them, as best they can, their requests. It will help their leaders hear their voices, and they will hear each other. With this in practice, this will rekindle a spirit in one's community, and onto the nation, as it was with our forefathers. And like the analogy of the cell, the community, truly is a living breathing person.

It is time for "We the people" to take back our country, for it's not a matter of being Republican or Democrat, but a matter of being truly human. Our community can be what we want it to be – a safe and healthy community with a vibrant economy. Whether it is to change a law or add a new one, raise or lower taxes, develop new medical and transportation programs, or even develop a new business district in the community, the need for these institutions will work its way straight to the highest position in government, even to the Oval Office, if it is the combined voice of the people. With these ideals in practice, the world will also learn from us!

Writing to your congressman is a good idea, but participating in your Community Town Meeting is a better idea. The Advisory Committee, or whatever it may be called, cordially invites you (the community) to the next Town Meeting so we can put you in contact with your government and the various organizations that are making your neighborhood into a community. Believe this, "Together," our government will do what we tell it to do, just as it did 225 years ago.

Recommendations and a Semi-Overview of Greatest1command.com

After reading this MAIN DOCUMENT #1, we highly recommend watching the video on the left side of the MONOLITH PHONE at the top of the Website entitled, “Compilation of: Which is the True Greatest 1 Command”. This video is more explicit in explaining Jesus’ true Greatest 1 Command to “Love each other As I Have loved you” from St. John 13: 34, which is also called the “Sacred Command” in 2 Peter 2: 21- 3. Here is the Link:

<https://youtu.be/xCcRreZGy8s>

Also, please watch the first video (Part 1) from Robert D. Brinsmead’s three part series on the right side of the MONOLITH PHONE entitled, “The Spirit of Jesus and the Bible”. Here are the Links:

Part 1. <https://youtu.be/IfpFfxomTyU>

Part 2. <https://youtu.be/b1u02q7oS3E>

Part 3. <https://youtu.be/uLYqB2ji8Ic>

Evermore, we believe our most inspirational writings are our “Sweet 16” writings; here is the Link to all 16 in their Website Page:

<https://greatest1command.com/Posted to Facebook 2019-2020.html>

Please read first our favorite “Sweet 16” essay [which we believe will open the mind’s eye] entitled, “PF#4- What does [Not Far From], [See], [Enter] or [In] Heaven Mean?” we believe you’ll love it too. Here is the Link:

https://greatest1command.com/cd2\_what\_does\_see\_enter\_or\_in\_heaven\_mean.pdf

In addition, it is pertinent that one reads Robert D. Brinsmead’s Journals and Essays beginning with his Journal: “Jesus and the Law” which is towards the bottom of the website, partially in the water. Here’s the Link:

https://greatest1command.com/cd1\_jesus\_and\_the\_law\_the\_historical\_method\_back\_to\_jesus\_before\_christianity.pdf

And then, on to Mr. Brinsmead’s other Journal, “Sabbatarianism Re-Examined”, which is also at the bottom lying on a rock. Here is the Link:

Moreover, we recommend working your way up the “Tree of Life” beginning at the ROOTS, then on to the TRUNK that leads to the BRANCHES which connects to the FLOWERS, and finally to the FRUITS Documents. In following these recommendations you’ll be working your way up in your “Spiritual Growth” to our final STEP and “Final Product” with the “Invitation to the Wedding of Lamb” which will point to Heaven on Earth, before the 2nd Coming. (Revelation 19: 7- 9) Link is below:

In addition, another important set of videos that should be looked at (which would be considered more advanced) deals with the Letter of Galatians. This Letter is called the Magna Carta of Christian freedom and one of Paul’s first writings. Besides freedom for humanity, we see Galatians, along with some of the Letter of Romans, as a Primer for understanding the Letter of Revelation. Revelation 17: 17 states, that God put it in their hearts to accomplish His purpose.... So, to understand the Letter of Revelation and God’s purpose, one must understand Paul when he beautifully explains what God was doing in history with His promise to Abraham. Paul wrote that God had to discipline Abraham’s decedents with childish rules and regulations, until, (and we will use mature figure of speech) “UNTIL” the VERTICAL PERCEPTION God (in the person of the Christ) would become the HORIZONTAL PERCEPTION of God living among humanity. (Rev. 21: 3- 4 & 2 Cor. 6: 16)

Consequently, we believe, to begin his relating to mankind, God only chose the Eastern Hemisphere because it was more mature with monotheism than was the Western Hemisphere. Therefore, there is nothing really special about neither Abraham nor his descendants. In fact, Abraham’s decedents, the Israelites, are just a by-product of God’s Promise to Abraham; because in Galatians, and especially in Romans, Paul shows that God was just keeping His WORD, His Justice and His Integrity...to teach Integrity, to humanity. We show this beautifully in our two part video entitled, “Galatians for Dummies”. These videos show that our understanding and our ability to be Parents was given to us to see God as a real Parent and thus the mystery of God is revealed. Here are the Links:

Verdict Publications and Robert D. Brinsmead for over 40 years have greatly informed us on church issues and church history, especially many Old Testament terms and words not understood by Christendom. The scholarly books they distributed by renowned scholars helped us greatly. Therefore, we created a web page in our site dedicated to those books; it’s the last LEAF to the right properly named, “Influential Scholars”. See link:

There are also links and playlists to more recent Biblical Scholars on that page. Keep in mind this is and “International Website of Theology for the Layman” which teaches the bible in its True Historical Context.

Last but not least, Greatest-1-Command.com is our second website. It is our website for future items to be uploaded to, for our main site Greatest1command.com cannot be modified or added to. Right now it contains a lot of TikTok videos and photos that we borrowed and uploaded to the website. Viewer discretion is advised for it contains a lot of images of what is happening in Gaza. In addition, some videos deal with politics. The website also has many of our photos and the newest and youngest scholars we have researched, along with believers of the Christian faith, and non-believers who have good insights into what righteousness is.

*SPECIAL NOTE:

Five Hundred years ago Martin Luther the great reformer wanted to reform (not destroy) the church he loved. He had many grievances such as Indulgences, which was paying money to the church to obtain forgiveness of sins. Another grievance was that Luther hated the exploitation of the poor by the church. As the tradition goes, Doctor Luther wrote "95 Theses" and nailed them on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany.

In the same way we at Greatest1command.com have "Grievances" against Christendom. We too have written our Theses and would love to nail them on all Church doors, but that would be considered as destroying private property. (Lol) Therefore, we'll just stick to the internet and hand them out on paper. Our Theses is called: A New Reformation; The New 95 Theses, Minus – 61: #PF 16. Here is the LINK that will lead to that Document #PF 16, which is kind of our Last of all our writings, and which has a LINK that will lead back to this MAIN DOCUMENT #1, which is basically one of our first writings. His face shone like the sun, and his clothes became as white as the light. 3 Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus. 4 While he was still speaking, a bright cloud enveloped them, and a voice from the cloud said, "This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!" (MATT. 3:16,17)

MATTHEW 5

The Beatitudes

5 Now when he saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them, saying:

The Fulfillment of the Law

17 "Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. 18 I tell you the truth, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. 19 Anyone who breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices and teaches these commands will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Pharisees and the teachers of the law, you will certainly not enter the kingdom of heaven.

Murder

21 "You have heard that it was said to the people long ago, 'Do not murder,' and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.' 22 But I tell you that anyone who is angry with his brother will be subject to judgment. Again, anyone who says to his brother, 'Raca,' is answerable to the Sanhedrin. But anyone who says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of the fire of hell.

23 "Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother; then come and offer your gift.

25 "Settle matters quickly with your adversary who is taking you to court. Do it while you are still with him on the way, or he may hand you over to the judge, and the judge may hand you over to the officer, and you may be thrown into prison. 26 I tell you the truth, you will not get out until you have paid the last penny."

Adultery

27 "You have heard that it was said, 'Do not commit adultery.' 28 But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 If your right eye causes you to sin, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. 30 And if your right hand causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

Divorce

31 "It has been said, 'Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a certificate of divorce.' 32 But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for marital unfaithfulness, causes her to become an adulteress, and anyone who marries the divorced woman commits adultery.

Oaths

33 "Again, you have heard that it was said to the people long ago, 'Do not break your oath, but keep the oaths you have made to the Lord.' 34 But I tell you, Do not swear at all: either by heaven, for it is God's throne; 35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King. 36 And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make even one hair white or black. 37 Simply let your 'Yes' be 'Yes,' and your 'No,' 'No'; anything beyond this comes from the evil one.

An Eye for an Eye

38 "You have heard that it was said, 'Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth.' 39 But I tell you, Do not resist an evil person. If someone strikes you on the right cheek, turn to him the other also. 40 And if someone wants to sue you and take your tunic, let him have your cloak as well. 41 If someone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles. 42 Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

Love for Enemies

43 "You have heard that it was said,

BUT I SAY...

ROMANS 10

4 Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

GALATIANS 3

19 What, then, was the purpose of the law? It was added because of transgressions until the Seed to whom the promise referred had come.

23 Before this faith came, we were held prisoners by the law, locked up until faith should be revealed. 24 So the law was put in charge to lead us to Christ that we might be justified by faith. 25 Now that faith has come, we are no longer under the supervision of the law.

OLD TESTAMENT!

5 One day as the crowds were gathering, he went up the hillside with his disciples and sat down and taught them there.

MATTHEW 5

a tremendous reward awaits you up in heaven. And remember, the ancient prophets were persecuted too.

13 "You are the world's seasoning, to make it tolerable. If you lose your flavor, what will happen to the world? And you yourselves will be thrown out and trampled underfoot as worthless. 14 You are the world's light—a city on a hill, glowing in the night for all to see. 15 Don't hide your light! Let it shine for all; let your good deeds glow for all to see, so that they will praise your heavenly Father.

17 "Don't misunderstand why I have come—it isn't to cancel the laws of Moses and the warnings of the prophets. No, I came to fulfill them, and to make them all come true. 18 With all the earnestness I have I say: Every law in the Book will continue until its purpose is achieved. 19 And so if anyone breaks the least commandment, and teaches others to, he shall be the least in the Kingdom of Heaven. But those who teach God's laws and obey them shall be great in the Kingdom of Heaven.

20 "But I warn you—unless your goodness is greater than that of the Pharisees and other Jewish leaders, you can't get into the Kingdom of Heaven at all!

21 "Under the laws of Moses the rule was, 'If you murder, you must die.' 22 But I have added to that rule, and tell you that if you are only angry, even in your own home, you are in danger of judgment! If you call your friend an idiot, you are in danger of being brought before the court. And if you curse him, you are in danger of the fires of hell."

23 "So if you are standing before the altar in the Temple, offering a sacrifice to God, and suddenly remember that a friend has something against you, 24 leave your sacrifice there beside the altar and go and apologize and be reconciled to him, and then come and offer your sacrifice to God. 25 Come to terms quickly with your enemy before it is too late and he drags you into court and you are thrown into a debtor's cell, 26 for you will stay there until you have paid the last penny.

27 "The laws of Moses said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' 28 But I say: Anyone who even looks at a woman with lust in his eye has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 29 So if your eye—even if it is your best eye—causes you to lust, gouge it out and throw it away. Better for part of you to be destroyed than for all of you to be cast into hell. 30 And if your hand—even your right hand—causes you to sin, cut it off and throw it away. Better that than find yourself in hell.

31 "The law of Moses says, 'If anyone wants to be rid of his wife, he can divorce her merely by giving her a letter of dismissal.' 32 But I say that a man who divorces his wife, except for fornication, causes her to commit adultery if she marries again. And he who marries her commits adultery.

19 Well then, why were the laws given? They were added after the promise was given, to show men how guilty they are of breaking God's laws. But this system of law was to last only until the coming of Christ, the Child to whom God's promise was made. (And there is this further difference. God gave his laws to angels to give to Moses, who then gave them to the people; 20 but when God gave his promise to Abraham, he did it by himself alone, without angels or Moses as go-betweens.)

21 Well then, are God's laws and God's promises against each other? Of course not! If we could be saved by his laws, then God would not have had to give us a different way to get out of the grip of sin—for the Scriptures insist we are all its prisoners. The only way out is through faith in Jesus Christ; the way of escape is open to all who believe him.

22 Until Christ came we were guarded by the law, kept in protective custody, so to speak, until we could believe in the coming Savior.

24 Let me put it another way. The Jewish laws were our teacher and guide until Christ came to give us right standing with God through our faith. 25 But now that Christ has come, we don't need those laws any longer to guard us and lead us to him.

God NEVER needed and NEVER wanted a Temple or Church Building!!!:

5 "Tell my servant David not to do it!" 6 For I have never lived in a temple. My home has been a tent ever since the time I brought Israel out of Egypt. 7 And I have never once complained to Israel's leaders, the shepherds of my people. Have I ever asked them, "Why haven't you built me a beautiful cedar temple?"

Jesus said it:

Matthew Chapter 5
 have made to the Lord. 34 But I tell you, Do not swear at all: either by heaven, for it is God's throne; 35 or by the earth, for it is his footstool; or by Jerusalem,

Stephen said it:

Acts Chapter 7
 48 "However, the Most High does not live in houses made by men. As the prophet says:

49 "Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool. What kind of house will you build for me?"

St. Paul said it:

Acts Chapter 17
 24 "The God who made the world and everything in it is the Lord of heaven and earth and does not live in temples built by hands. 25 And he is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything, because he himself gives all men life and breath and everything else."

Note: St. Paul also said God does not need to be served, which means he doesn't need "Vertical" worship, but to reach GOD through people for all Eternity as St. John writes in Revelation. Greatest1command.com

The Gospel is "Good News"

Father

1. The "Essence" of the Gospel is God among us. (Matt. 1: 23)

Son

2. The essential "Message" of the Gospel is to "Love Each Other As Jesus Loved Us". (St. John 13: 34)

Holy Spirit

3. The "Fulfillment" of the Gospel is heaven on earth, through love in action, commencing with "Jesus' Year of Jubilee". (Luke 4: 18, 19)

Second Coming

11/08/2018

Dear Believers,

Jesus wanted Heaven on Earth in his "First Coming", Not the Second! Aren't his original "Words" good enough? Why do you need the miraculous appearance of his "Second Coming" to "DO" what he said to "Do" in his "First Coming"? The Centurion only said just say the "Word", and Jesus replied I never seen such great "Faith" in all of Israel. For this reason all the preceding generations have died, does this generation want to die too?

Anonymously,
 Yours Truly

First Coming

Dear Humanity,

By the powers invested in me, I formally re-Announce and re-Establish Jesus' unending "Year of Jubilee" that has NO Statute of Limitation, for which Humanity has been in breach for 2000 years. This will establish Heaven on Earth, before the 2nd Coming...and Death will cease. So help us God. Amen

Note: Since Jesus the Messiah already Proclaimed it (Luke 4: 19) any of Jesus' friends can Re-claim it. Please Share

With Love,
 Holy Spirit

Jesus' Year of Jubilee and his G.I.C., are, the solution to: Debts!

Jesus left Earth so that WE can learn that together, WE ALL are CHRIST!

So WHO will Initiate the Invitation?

Heaven on Earth, the Kingdom of God or life with God is an OPEN INVITATION. But a Religion of LAW and COMMANDMENTS is a CLOSED INVITATION (and ironically in a CLOSED BUILDING) that will instill FEAR, be FORCEFUL, IMPERSONAL, and CONDEMNING if not accepted, and definitely the antithesis of LOVE. Therefore, since God's INVITATION is OPEN, it will give everyone a choice, and a greater possibility to LOVE.

Moreover, Jesus is only one person and so is God; and Eternal life is a COLLECTIVE of SENTIENT BEINGS. Therefore, Jesus and God need, and are looking for, COLLABORATORS and INITIATORS like Zacchaeus the Tax Collector. (Luke 19: 1- 19) This is what Jesus and The Father were doing in the 1st COMING, and will expect to find Heaven on Earth at his RETURN. (Lk. 18:8)

So the Question is:

"Who Among YOU is going to INITIATE the INVITATION for Heaven on Earth?"
